

OSTRATICKÝ

special agricultural machines for vineyards and orchards

Multipurpose cultivators for small tractors

- for liquidation weeds and soil cultivation
- for deep cultivation with application of fertilisers
- for grass turf cut

The multipurpose cultivator HKO 100 Mini is lighter variant of multipurpose cultivator HKO 180 Vario designed for application with special winegrowing and fruitgrowing tractors.

Basic element of multipurpose cultivator HKO 100 Mini is carrying frame from rectangular thick-walled tubes with side shifted sleeves for mounting cultivation tines finished with chisels for deep cutting through or with wide wing-shaped shares for surface weed liquidation and cutting down grass turf. The unique, by OSTRATICKÝ developed system for exchange position of cultivation tines and exchange working tools make possible using one working tool for more operations and decrease the purchase charges to minimum. Working width of surface cultivator is adjustable from 50 to 140 cm, for deep cultivation is possible to adjust distance 75 to 100 cm and equal the wheel spacing most of existing small tractors. For comfortable adjusting working depth is possible multipurpose cultivator equip with packer roller.

Multipurpose cultivator HKO 100 Mini is designed for application with special tractors and small tractors with engine power 40-60 HP and gross weight don't across 1.800 kg.